ELDERLY MAN HURT.

As Automobile Slid Into Ditch and Capsized.

Middlebury, Oct. 24.—A serious automobile accident occurred last evening on the Salisbury road about eight miles from this village. Mr. and Mrs. Washburn and son, Harold, of Colchester had gone to Rutland, where they had left Mrs. Washburn to go on with friends, whom she met in that city, to Connecticut. Mr. Washburn and his son started on their return to their home, and when near, or in front of the home of A. Boardman on the Salisbury road, met an automobile going in the opposite direction. They started to turn out and, seeing that they did not have room enough to get by, applied the breaks and went off the road and over into a ditch. The car was tipped over and the occupants thrown out.

Mr. Washburn was assisted into the house of Mr. Boardman and doctors were summoned from this village. Dr. R. W. Prentiss answered the call and was assisted by Dr. Dean of Salisbury, who happened to pass at the time. It was found that Mr. Washburn, who is an elderly man, was quite badly cut about the face and was bruised considerably. His jawbone was cracked and he complained of pains in one shoulder and one limb. It is feared that he is hurt internally. His son escaped with a few scratches.

The car was badly damaged and left beside the road. The son, after the physicians had made their examinations, telephoned to a cousin in St. Albans, who immediately came by auto and took Mr. Washburn and his son to their home, leaving about 2 o'clock yesterday morning.

Beyond Him.

Little sister and brother had quarrelled. After an early supper mother endeavored to re-establish friendly relations, finally quoting to them the Bible verse, "Let not the sun go down upon your wrath."

Turning to Edward, the elder, she said: "Now, Edward, are you going to let the sun go down upon your wrath?"

Edward squirmed a little as he looked into her pleading face.

"Well, how can I stop it?" he questioned.—Harper's Weekly.

Supt. of Cemeteries Alex Hanton will be in his office, city hall Saturday, Oct. 28, from 7 to 8, to collect fees for caring for lots.—adv.

Our Three Days' Coat Sale

This coat sale starts off with a rush; we were very sorry to see people go out Monday without getting waited upon. We were anxious to give the trade the best service possible, and in that way to divide our time as much as we can. We surely have some good values for you, and will do all we can to find the garment that is just adapted to your figure and taste. Never was our ready-made department in so good shape to take care of your wants. We have a full line of Wool and Silk Dresses in a large variety of the season's best values. We secured this week some waist values such as the trade has been calling for. See our new linnen waists and the fine pique values. We have a large assortment of Crepe de Chine Waists just received.

Here Are Some Unusual Coat Values

Coats That We Cannot Duplicate This Season

Here is a chance to pick from a stock of four hundred and fifty of the season's best Coats—Coats that are made in the latest style models, from all of the popular cloths—Coats at unusual prices.

We were able to pick from twenty different stocks what we considered the best styles and values. These we are putting on sale for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 23, 24 and 25, at prices that are a saving proposition to you.

At from $5.00 to $10.00 are a few odd Coats in values up to $25.00—Coats that are extra warm and serviceable. These are not just the latest styles, but are all right, and the price is less than you would pay for a shoddier Coat.

Here are Coats that we are putting into this sale at $14.00; are made in a variety of different cloths, in styles that were made to sell at $16.50 and $15.00.

At $15.00 are about fifty Coats in different cloths and styles, all colors. These are Coats that are the season's best values at $18.00. We were able to clean up this lot at a price: this is when a service means a good saving to you.

At $18.00 are about thirty-five Coats of the season's best cloths and styles—Coats that were made to sell at $20.00 and Coats that we could not reorder at a fourth more than the regular price to-day.

At $20.00 each is a lot of odd Coats in a variety of the season's best cloths and styles—Coats that are worth from $22.50 to $25.00. This sale at $20.00.

It will please you if you take just a few minutes of your time looking over this line of Millinery. Lots of new things. Lots of kinds that you won't see in other shops. Lots of special kinds that will appeal to you as the best that you have seen, and then again you should see a cash saving of at least 20 per cent. We will gladly show you; then you can express your own opinion.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Perry, who have been passing a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Perry of Washington street, and with other relatives about town, returned to-day to their home in St. Johnsbury.

The committee on bag day plan to leave a bag with every family in Barre and the outlying districts. The territory is a difficult one to cover, and if, by chance, you have been neglected in the distribution, send in your donation just the same. We need it.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Beckman, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Miers of Keith avenue since returning to Barre from a summer in the White mountains of New Hampshire, left this morning for New York, where they are to sail Saturday for Florida, there to pass the winter at St. Augustine. Mr. Beckman took along his golf clubs and will endeavor to duplicate some of the records he established on the Barre Golf club's course during the autumn season.

C. H. Gordon of Lyndonville, scale supervisor for the northern division of the Boston & Maine railroad, arrived in the city yesterday to superintend the work of installing a new set of draught scales in the M. & W. R. freight yard. A gang of laborers got under way yesterday and at the end of the week it is expected that the work will have been completed. A cement emplacement is being constructed near the site of the scales formerly used opposite the blacksmith shop. The new scales were manufactured by the Fairbanks company in St. Johnsbury and represent the latest design in the construction of railroad scales. The set has a 150-ton beam with an extension of 42 feet, in four sections. The capacity is great enough to accommodate any of the large loads which the yard crew is accustomed to weighing.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. E. M. Roscoe of the Spaulding high school faculty and Miss Elizabeth Jenkins of Goddard seminary left yesterday for Johnson, where they are attending a conference of teachers who are conducting teacher training courses in Vermont preparatory schools this year.

Mrs. Bertha A. Beattie wishes to call your attention to the new stock of yarns which has been added to her art embroidery line and also to announce that Miss Hayward from Shepard, Norwell Co.'s store of Boston is at the Specialty Shop and will give free lessons in knitting and crochet. We are sure you will all want to make a sweater.—adv.

An exchange states that George H. Tupper, who formerly resided in this city while employed in the Reynolds hardware store, has leased a suite of rooms on Congress street in St. Albans and will transfer his household goods to that city, where he is employed by the St. Albans Heating & Plumbing Co. Mrs. Tupper, who is employed in the Daylight store, will complete her duties at the end of the week and go to St. Albans to join her husband. The family has been residing on South Main street.

At the invitation of Anthony Mollica, grand knight, and William J. Ling, grand secretary, of the St. Johnsbury council, a delegation from Barre council, No. 401, Knights of Columbus, motored to St. Johnsbury last evening to participate in a third degree ceremonial. The occasion brought together a large number of knights, many of them from outside courts. The degree was conferred by Hon. C. H. Boivin, M. P. of Montreal, P. Q., district deputy of Canada, and his staff of assistants. Among the Barre men who made the trip were: C. J. Leclair, P. A. Noonan, Joseph M. Nelson, A. B. Gomez, Arthur C. Moore, Carl Nelson, John O'Leary, John Hartigan, Charles A. Wilkie, John Papin and John Nelson.
